LAS OLAS RIVER HOUSE HOSTED PRIVATE CONCERT FEATURING BON JOVI'S RICHIE SAMBORA & SINGER/SONGWRITER RICHIE SUPA
VIP preview of Las Olas River House's $10 million 5th Avenue Penthouse

FORT LAUDERDALE, FL (April 28, 2008) – Las Olas River House, a luxury residential condominium on Fort Lauderdale's sophisticated Las Olas Boulevard, hosted a private event featuring an intimate acoustic performance with Bon Jovi's Richie Sambora and Singer/Songwriter Richie Supa for South Florida VIPs on April 25, 2008.

More than 100 guests attended the exclusive event at Las Olas River House, Fort Lauderdale's premiere address. Upon arrival, guests previewed two of the newest Harley-Davidson Motorcycles from Bruce Rossmeyer Harley-Davidson before being ushered to the $10 million 5th Avenue Penthouse where they enjoyed cocktails and a preview of the impressive three-story residence. After hors d'oeuvres and signature drinks by Orzel Vodka in the Bistro, guests were seated in The Library for the intimate concert. Richie Sambora and Richie Supa took the stage at 9:15pm where they serenaded guests for 50 minutes with songs such as Aerosmith and Bon Jovi hits, including Wanted Dead or Alive, Living on a Prayer, Amazing and Pink.

"Tarragon Corporation was thrilled to be able to bring in Richie Sambora and Richie Supa as our guests," says Jamie Helman, Executive Vice President, Florida Division of Tarragon Corporation, developer of Las Olas River House. "It was a remarkable experience to be in such an intimate setting and listen to them play and tell the story of how each song was written – the guests truly enjoyed the evening."

Brilliantly designed by famed Interiors by Steven G., the 5th Avenue Penthouse is a true architectural masterpiece spanning three stories and more than 8,300 square feet. Priced at $10,000,000, some of its highlights include a private foyer with free-form powder room, a dramatic living room with floor-to-ceiling windows and 360 degree views, two master suites, a theater room, a fitness studio and an entertainment lounge. Exquisite finishes and details were combined with unique sculptures and paintings to create a private art collection 42 stories above Las Olas Boulevard.

With its signature blue-glass exterior, Las Olas River House has set a new standard for sophisticated urban living offering super-luxury residences and amenities in one of the most enviable locations in town. In addition to 24-hour valet parking and advanced security services, Las Olas River House also features a dramatic lobby, lush pool deck with cabanas and putting green, state-of-the-art spa and fitness center, The Bistro for private events, The Library for a quiet retreat, private dining and boardrooms and five-star concierge services.

The Private Collection consists of the 12 most exclusive residences, priced from $1 million to $10 million. The on-site Sales Center is located at 333 Las Olas Way in Suite #210.
